

Peacebuilding in a Global Village

UN International Day of Peace

Saturday 17th September | 4:30 pm
You Are Invited to Hold Hands

I tell my story, of my pain
You tell yours and convey your pain
And him, and her...
From here and from there

One by one we gather
And put our stories together
Now look from the top
Like a bird from above

Do you now see the human pain?
It's no longer your pain or my pain
It's the whole human body
That's crying out its pain

The cure is in seeing the whole
The answer lies in the hands that we hold
Now that we are free from selfishness
Wanting cure and freedom only for ourselves

No more circles around our kin, our race
Dividing humanity into favourite rings
It's now that love will be our guide
It will lead our ship into that moment, the moment of "dawn".

Meet us under the clocks at Flinders Street Station, Melbourne
